THE SPINSTER

69th edition

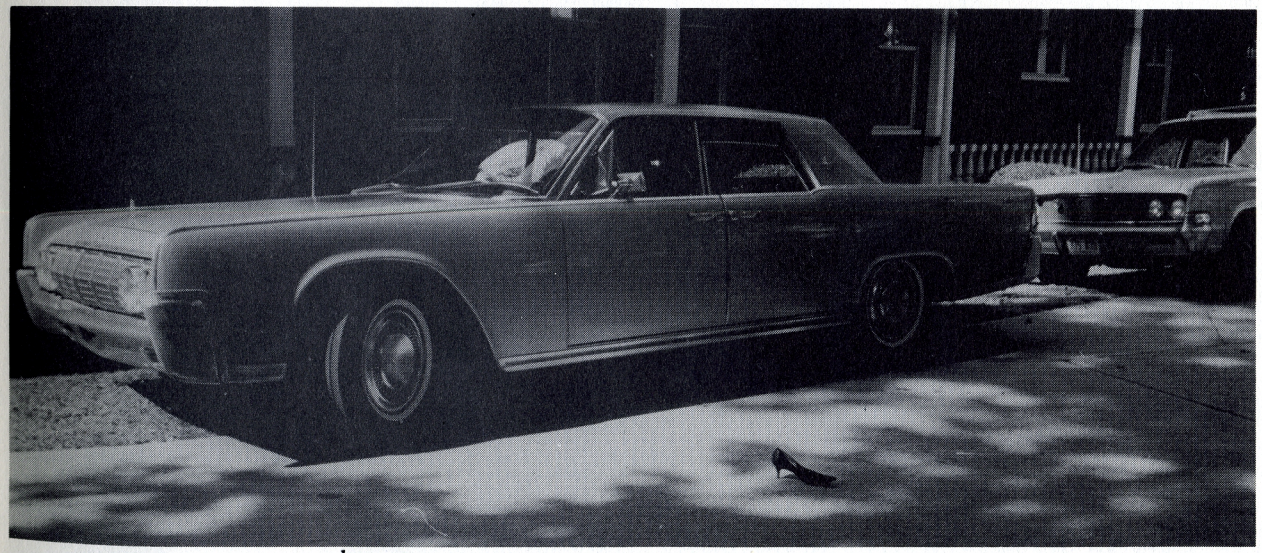

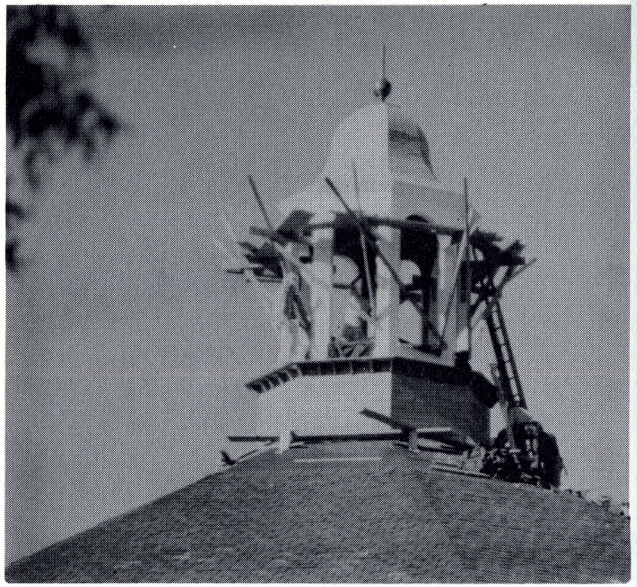

I announce the day as the earth turns
I stand on the edge and as the grey interval becomes violet, and the violet pink, and the pink yellow, just then—I scream MORNING!

Dedicated to Miss Dorothy Doerr,
who represents the intelligence,
discipline, and organization,
the generous individual attention,
the numerous unknown and unacknowledged services —
the best of Hollins College.

IN TRIBUTE

Kathleen Condict Jackson

1902-1966

Associate Professor of Economics

Kathleen Condict Jackson was an integral part of the Hollins Community for over thirty years. She was committed in interest and enthusiasm to the fulfillment of the educational experience for the individual student. As a responsible member of the Hollins faculty, she maintained an active concern for the development of the college as a academic institution. Miss Jackson is survived by a living influence in the minds of all who knew her as a reliable friend and a loyal educator.
